

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

The Law School provides basic and advanced courses focused on or involving constitutional law, including courses examining individual constitutional rights, governmental structures, and public lawmaking.

The courses listed below (and those in the Civil Rights, Public Interest, and Public Policy pathway and others) provide opportunities to explore the U.S. Constitution from a variety of different perspectives.

Foundational Courses

Constitutional Law (2L required course)
Criminal Procedure (upper-level required course)

Recommended Courses

Administrative Law
Comparative Constitutional Law
Constitutional and Civil Rights Litigation
Election Law
Employment Discrimination
Firearms Law
Freedom of Speech and Association
Gender, Race, Sexuality and the Law
Legislation
Regulation of Drugs and Medical Devices

Contact List: Faculty Who Teach or Have Expertise in the Field

Abrams, Alexander, Barondes, Bennett, Halabi, Lidsky, Lietzan, Litton, Oliveri, Reuben, Trachtenberg, Wells

*Not all of the above courses may be offered every academic year. Please refer to the registrar's website to see how frequently courses of interest have been offered in recent years.